NEW BUSINESS:

1. Discussion of Unincorporated Consolidated Garbage Collection

Supervisor Hovde explained to the board that about 10 years ago a referendum was put on the ballot asking the electors if they would like to see a consolidated garbage collection using only one vendor. At that time the electors were opposed to this proposal.

The premise is that this type of collection would be easier on the streets, one truck versus multiple trucks and less expensive. It would go to bid, and the lowest vendor would receive the contract.

Trustee Rogers commented to let the electors make that decision.

Supervisor Hovde asked for a motion to approve the Town Fund Board Audit for September 15 through October 12, 2023, in the amounts of:
