General Assistance: An oral report by Bobby Ryan from General Assistance.

For the Month of August, the General Assistance Department took in 2 Emergency Applications and sent out 1 General Assistance Application. Township Total Dollars spent was $2,210.90 The Food Pantry has been having Drive Up Distribution on Wednesdays and Fridays from 9-11. We serviced 255 families during those days.

We received a very generous food donation from the Bloomingdale Park District. They had numerous drop-off locations collecting food; then they brought the donations here to us on Saturday; they had two trucks of food.

Supervisor Hovde asked if there was an update on the Northern Illinois Food Bank. Bobby replied that he sent her the pictures she requested of the new layout. She looked up the website and Bobby also sent her a photo of the hours on the door. We are just finishing up the application, that should be the last step on our end.

MENTAL HEALTH BOARD UPDATE:

Mike McGinn, Town Board Liaison, reported that we received grants requesting $977,875.00. The grant requesters have been scheduled to do a presentation to the Board regarding their requests. These presentations were held, last Wednesday evening, September 9th, tomorrow evening, September 16th and next Wednesday, September 23rd.
